

KENNESAW STATE
UNIVERSITY

Construction Management Facility Management Certificate

A facility management certificate is for someone interested in gaining an understanding of the operations of running a building. Facility Management is about supporting people where they live, work, shop and play. Facility managers operate office buildings, shopping malls, stadiums, concert halls universities, factories, airports, churches and hotels. The facility management certification is in accordance with International Facility Management Association's IFMA) eleven competencies*. This certification can potentially be completed in one year. Possible fields you could work in:

- Project Management
- Real Estate & Property Management
- Environment & Sustainability
- Finance & Business

Potential Careers

- ⇒ Facility Manger
- ⇒ Facility Coordinator/Supervisor
- ⇒ Building Maintenance Manager
- ⇒ Facilities System Specialist

Tuition

(3 courses per semester)

$5324 (approx.)

Contact Fiscal Services for specific tuition details

Courses (18 Credits)

(3 credits each)

Mechanical & Electrical Building Systems

Facility Management Strategies

Facility Management Practices

Sustainable Operations & Maintenance

Elective 1

Elective 2

For information contact: Jacqueline F. Stephens

jstep109@kennesaw.edu

470-578-4230

* This program certification is not affiliated with the IFMA FMP Credential